

COM. ROSE TAKES LEAD IN RACE FOR CARNIVAL'S KING

Brother Masons and Fellow Yachtsmen Eager to See Him Crowned.

MANY WOULD BE QUEEN

Edna May Spooner Wrests Lead from Elsie Janis, Who Is 700 Behind Her.

While went Commodore A. N. Rose, in his Corbin Comet, past all competitors in the exciting race for King of the coming automobile carnival, and he leads in the race with 4,581 votes.

The Commodore has entered his Comet for the Briardiff races, and claims that the Comet is the fastest thing on wheels. With the help of his shipmates in the Hudson Yacht Club, and the support of his Masonic brethren, he hopes to win in The Evening World election for King as well as to bring back the Briardiff trophy.

F. W. Clinton, president of the Danbury Hat Company, and owner of a Cadillac car, was pushed into second place to-day with 4,065 votes.

The next most interesting development of the voting for the last twenty-four hours was the response of Evening World readers to Gen. John T. Cutting's nomination of Col. William F. Cody ("Buffalo Bill") for King. Seventy-eight readers added their votes to the twenty-five sent in by Gen. Cutting, and in the past twenty-four hours more than four hundred votes came in for the colonel.

Col. Cody is the most picturesque figure and most romantic character in American life. It has fallen to few men to play so many parts as he. Cowboy, rough rider, scout, Indian fighter, showman, statesman, Congressman, author, playwright, gentleman; the hero of a hundred novels and a thousand stories, he is the idol of every boy in the land, and the ideal man-for-all-around an arrow, his once raven hair falling on his shoulders, now a silvery gray. He would make a picturesque king at the head of the Carnival parade.

Edna May Spooner Leads for Queen. Miss Edna May Spooner, star of the Spooner company, at Blaney's Lincoln Square Theatre, was sent to the front in the contest for Queen by The Evening

A Candidate for Queen and Three for King of Auto Carnival

W. C. HURST VICE PRES. SOCIETY OF PROFESSIONAL AUTO ENGINEERS

World voters dropped in the ballot box in the lobby of the theatre by her admirers, and has 2,731 votes.

Miss Elsie Janis is second with 2,035, closely pressed by Mrs. Joan Newton Cuneo with 1,795, and Miss Rosalind Greenon with 1,690, while Miss Beatrice Morgan, "Girl of the Golden Western Harlem Opera-House, who was nominated later, has 725 votes to-day.

Miss Joan Grae, the charming "show girl" in Gus Edwards's new company, has 232, Corinne M. Eva Tangany 225, Miss L. E. Anderson 223, and Mrs. S. B. Bowman 205.

The number of candidates has grown so large that it is impossible to give the votes of those who have received less than 100 votes. As fast as they pass the 100 mark their names will reappear in The Evening World column.

Recognizing the truth of the adage, "A horse divided against itself must surely fail," J. P. Higgins, of the New York Taxicab Company, which owns the 288 red taxicabs that help to make the traffic of the city streets picturesque, addresses this letter to the Principal Editor:

"Kindly withdraw me as a candidate for the King and put me down on your list as campaign manager for our president, Harry N. Allen, the 'Taxicab King.' Inclosed please find 100 votes, which kindly place to Mr. Harry Allen's credit. J. P. HIGGINS.

The following letter was handed to the Principal Editor by the mother of these talented young women:

"Will you please withdraw my name from the contest for 'Queen' and give your vote for Her Highness Miss Joan Grae. More are to follow which are to help make her Queen.

A few more votes for little Joan Grae, and though on the stage, permit me to say 'I am not a queen, but I am the girl of the hour.' The girl, like stars of the stage, is the girl of the hour, and her eyes, so big and blue, offer this to each voter.

To each voter I commend.

"AN ADMIRER."

Here's a Poetical Campaigner.

"I'm a poet, please, and I have pure votes for Her Highness Miss Joan Grae. More are to follow which are to help make her Queen.

A few more votes for little Joan Grae, and though on the stage, permit me to say 'I am not a queen, but I am the girl of the hour.' The girl, like stars of the stage, is the girl of the hour, and her eyes, so big and blue, offer this to each voter.

To each voter I commend.

"AN ADMIRER."

Will Take About Five Minutes TO RELIEVE YOU OF INDIGESTION.

Read why nothing will upset your Stomach or remain undigested if you eat Diapiesin afterwards.

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of a case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will take one 22-grain Triangule of Diapiesin after eating. Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or Stomach gas, which causes Belching, Dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, Nausea, Indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), Bloating, Heartburn, Water-brash, Pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective Diapiesin is used. No matter what you think your trouble—call it by any name you choose—it is certain that the real cause is fermentation of the food you eat. All else are merely symptoms or the result of this cause. For all these things you will find a sure cure in Diapiesin, and one 22-grain Triangule, taken after your next meal, will prove this. Diapiesin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. Each Triangule will digest 3,000 grains of food and leave nothing to ferment or sour. Any good pharmacy here can supply these 50-cent cases of Diapiesin, which have the complete formula printed thereon to show just what you are taking, and that it is no more harmful than candy.

Start taking Diapiesin to-day, and by to-morrow you will actually brag about your healthy, strong Stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and Gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.
